Miss Lamb is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lamb, of this place. She graduated from the Cloverport High School last May, and is an exceptionally bright young lady.

ST. CLAIR

Appointed County Road Supervisor--Other Fiscal Court Proceedings.

HARDINSBURG, Ky., April 10.—All the magistrates were in attendance, with Judge Moorman presiding. The court continued five days adjourning Saturday.

The court appropriated $85 to defray the expenses of Breckenridge county at the "Home Coming Week" in Louisville speeches in favor of this appropriation were made by Judge Mercer, Jon'l Murray, John P. Haswell and others. Some doubt was expressed by one as to whether this would be technically legal, but the doubt was resolved in favor of the progressive citizens of the county, who will without question approve the action of the court. All the other counties of the state are participating in this great affair, and it is a duty that should not be afforded to provide or its representative.

The results of the votes taken at the Road Convention, were spread upon the order book of the court, and the sentiment of that convention was allowed as closely as possible in all matters pertaining to road matter.

The office of county supervisor of roads was created, and James V. Blair was elected to that position, and his salary was fixed at $600 per year. He will be permitted to select one assistant in each magisterial district. St. Clair will give his whole time to the work of his office.

The allowance for pauper coffins was fixed as follows: For persons under 10 years of age $3; for persons over 10 years of age $6 each.

By an order made by the court, the county pauper commissioners, is required to visit the poor house each month, without giving notice to the keeper, and that the inmates are suitably provided for. The keeper is given the term free of rent, and allowed $150 per week for each inmate.

No claim will be allowed hereafter by the court except it be sworn to and the certificate to the officer administering the oath, attached.

On account of the absence of the county attorney, Gus Brown, at Cincinnati, O. as a witness in the Federal court in a patent case, Col. D. R. Murray acted as county attorney pro tem until last day of the term.

The salary of the county clerk was raised from $600 to $800 per year; the salary of the county attorney was raised from $500 to $600 per year. The court thought these increases justified one account of more work in these offices.

The salary of the County Clerk, as clerk of the Fiscal Court was fixed at $150 per year and is the same compensation that has been allowed this official for years.

TRIAL

Of John Henry Clark, One of Alleged Murderers of John Coke at Hudsonville.

HARDINSBURG, Ky., April 10.—Monday looked like circuit court day. The trial of the alleged murderers of John A. Coke was the magnet. Fully 700 people crowded into the court room when the case of the commonwealth of Kentucky versus John Henry Clark was called before Judge Henry Moorman. Nothing like it was ever seen here before. The killing of Coke has aroused intense interest in the whole southern end of the county, and there was some little talk of a mob by some, but the good sense and respect for law of the citizens of the county will never let such a thing materialize.

At the conclusion of the testimony for the commonwealth, Mercer and Mercer announced that the defendants would waive any further examination, and Judge Moorman ordered that he be held to await the action of the grand jury, without bail, and Clark was remanded to jail. The evidence adduced against him was circumstantial; but it was shown that he was arrested at Sand Knob, 20 miles from his home near Hudson; that he had told Wm. Chaney, in a laughing manner two or three times, that he was going to get an old man for his money, only a short time before the killing, that he did not come to Coke's home after the killing with the other neighbors, and that he had Mr. Coke's coat on when he was arrested. Jailer Shelman testified that the defendant and Holland were confined in cells down stairs and the others arrested for the same offense were in the upper cell; that he overheard Holland talking to those up stairs through the sewer pipes, and that he said in the presence of the defendant that he, Holland, knew a good deal but he wasn't going to tell it. The others upstairs told him what they had told Arthur Beard, the deputy sheriff, and Holland said he had told H. Beard the same thing. Other property of Coke's, a razor and two knives were also identified, but they were in Clark's possession before the killing. These are the chief points brought against him. Clark is a young man of about 32 years of age, with light brown hair and blue eyes, and has fairly intelligent face. The sentiment of the people seems to be rather against him. The cases against the others will be called to-morrow, and it may be that some of the others will waive an examination.

THE EVIDENCE.

Lee Bishop was the first witness called. He was the coroner who held the inquest over the dead body of John A. Coke. He found the body lying in front of his house. He was lying on his right side shot in the breast with a single barrel shot gun. He found $25 in the right hip pocket. A broken tobacco stick was shown Mr. Bishop, who said it was the same stick he found near the body.

Pias Tucker was the next witness. He discovered the body while he was going to his work the next morning about 7 o'clock. Didn't make examination. Said the last time he saw Mr. Coke was the evening before about 8 o'clock at Hudsonville. He bought two pair hinges and paid for a bale of wire. A vest was shown Mr. Tucker. He said it belonged to Coke. He also recognized a coat which belonged to the dead man and was the same goods as the vest. The coat had been worn in the rain and was the same coat found on the prisoner when captured. The witness said he found $20 in an overcoat that was under the bed in room occupied by Coke.

Ed Butler was next put on the stand. He was asked about the fire in the fire place. He said the wood was in the fire place ready to kindle, but saw no signs of a fire being made. Looked like a man had fixed the wood for making the fire but was called away before he got through.

Arthur Beard deputy sheriff was the next witness and the officer who arrested Clark near Sand Knob 20 miles distant from his home near Hudson. He arrested Clark about 9 o'clock Monday night. He recognized the coat shown him as being the same coat the prisoner had on when he arrested him. This coat belonged to the vest and suit worn by Coke before his death.

Chas. Beard deputy sheriff was with Beard and helped make the arrest. He corroborated the statement of Beard.

Will Chaney was called he recognized the gun produced to him and said it was the same gun he saw Clark with before the killing. It was a single barrel loader.

Bob Clark saw the prisoner the next morning after the killing met him in the woods as he was going to his brothers. As he returned he met the prisoner again in the woods. He had the gun. Said Clark remarked to him in a joking way "I believe I will get out and kill an old man and get me some money." This conversation was before the killing. He had on his person at the time two pocket knives a razor collar button and coat. Clark said he won the knives, razor and gun in a game of poker with the prisoner.

Pias Tucker was recalled and identified the knives and razor belonging to the dead man.

Dan Quigley heard gun fire on the night of the killing. He also said the razor was the one he used to shave Clark with before his death.

John Stillwell also identified the razor as Coke's and the one he used to shave him.

Clarence Stillwell said it was the same razor.

R. A. Shelman jailer of Breckenridge county said he heard Holland one of the prisoners in the jail talking to the other prisoners through the sewer pipe in the jail. Holland said "he knew a great deal about the killing but was not going to tell it."

Judge Wells was next on the stand. He said the wads were No 12 and fit the gun. Said he was a detective and had been employed to work up the case.

The commonwealth rested their case here.

Claud Morrow for the defense waived further examination and asked the Judge to commit the prisoners without bail.

BIDS INVITED.

HARDINSBURG, Ky., April 10.—Special- Author Goodman, the local contractor, has received notice from George W. Fegan, the chief engineer of the Madisonville Hartford & Eastern R'y Co., that bids for the construction of the railroad will be received at his office in Hartford, until the 23 of this month. Mr. Goodman will probably be a successful bidder. In the notice,

An Equity warehouse for tobacco at Owensboro is said to be a certainty.

It is stated that the total length of the road is about 35½ miles, beginning at a point on the Providence branch of the Louisville & Nashville R. R. about 30 miles west of Madisonville, and extending a north eastwardly direction via Hartford to the intersection with the L. H. & St. L. at Mitchell. The work of construction will commence about May 11.

Miss Grace Perry was at home from Louisville Sunday.

Royal Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Made from Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

In baking powder Royal is the standard, the powder of highest reputation; found by the United States Government tests of greatest strength and purity.

It renders the food more healthful and palatable and is most economical in practical use.

Housekeepers are sometimes importuned to buy alum powders because they are "cheap." Yet some of the cheapest made powders are sold to consumers at the highest price.

Housekeepers should stop and think. Is it not better to buy the Royal and take no chances—the powder whose goodness and honesty are never questioned?

Is it economy to spoil your digestion by an alum-phosphate or other adulterated powder to save a few pennies?

COUNTY JAIL KEYS STOLEN.

Prisoners Shut Off from Bread and Water for Over Twenty-four Hours--No Clue to Thieves.

JAIL GUARDED MONDAY NIGHT.

HARDINSBURG, KY., APRIL 10—2:45 P. M.—SPECIALLY THE KEYS TO THE COUNTY JAIL WERE STOLEN SOMETIME YESTERDAY AFTER THE SENSATIONAL TRIAL OF JOHN HENRY CLARK, ONE OF COKE'S ALLEGED MURDERERS. THE KEYS HAVE NOT BEEN FOUND. THERE IS NO CLUE. AN EXPERT CELL-OPENER OF LOUISVILLE HAS BEEN SENT FOR.

THE PRISONERS HAVE NOT HAD BREAD NOR WATER SINCE MONDAY NIGHT AT THEIR SUPPER.

THE ATTORNEYS FOR THE DEFENSE DEMANDED THAT A SPECIAL GUARD BE PLACED AROUND THE JAIL LAST NIGHT.

TODAY'S TRIAL WAS POSTPONED UNTIL TOMORROW.

THE MOB FEELING AT THE SCENE OF THE MURDER HAS SUBSIDED.

THE ATTORNEYS FOR THE DEFENSE ARE MAKING A VIGOROUS FIGHT.

Work on the hotel to be built at Tar Springs is being pushed forward. A saw mill has been engaged and is sawing the lumber for the building at the springs. The hotel will probably be completed by June 1.

You are invited to see a line of stylish millinery, a showing of the latest creations in Paris, fancy braids, flowers and ribbons. The French sailors will prove popular, also—Mrs. J. M. Cordrey, (nee Judith Miller.)

Almer Little, of Owensboro, was here last week preparing to organize a camp of the Woodman of the World. Mr. Little said that prospects were good for an organization of the kind.

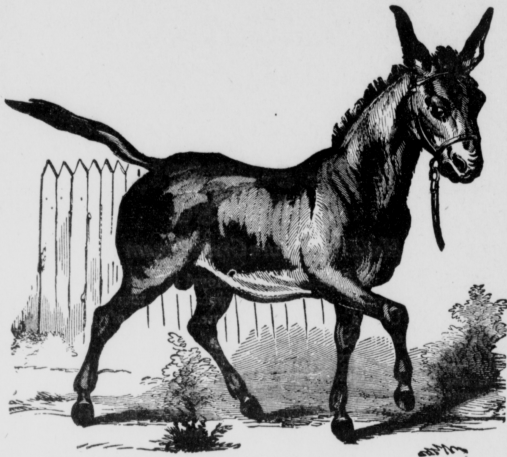

Stewart Babbage has a position in the new store of Shapinsky Bros.

Mr. J. Y. Lott, American Society Equity organizer from this, the Dark Tobacco District, addressed the farmers and citizens of Shelby county at the courthouse in Shelbyville Monday night.

The Clover Dramatic Club of the local A. O. U. W. lodge will present the comedy drama, "A Moonshiner's Daughter" on Thursday night April 26 in Oelze's hall. Those who will take part in the play are as follows: W. R. Wilson, R. E. Mattingly, J. B. Bohler, T. J. Wine, W. L. McCracken, Esther Jackson, Jessie Berry and Nina Wilkinson. The cast has been working hard for some time and the entertainment will doubtless be a very pleasing one.

"Sporting Boy"

A red sorrel stallion foaled in 1900, with small star and a little white on inside of left-hind ankle. This is a grand stallion of great style, good bone and beautiful color. He is 16 1-4 hands-high and well proportioned and weighs 1,300 pounds. He has the very best of feet and legs, and is as well-bred as any saddle stallion in America. He combines many of the characteristics of the Morgan and Denmark families of Kentucky. He is by My Own's Boy, Jr., who is by My Own's Boy, and his dam is Belle Slaughter 382 N. S. H. R. Vol. 1. My Own's Boy is by the grandly bred My Own, No. 1521; who was by Artist 65, and out of Lady Graves 57, who was by Mont Rose 106. Artist was by the renowned King William 67, who was by Washington Denmark 64. King William sired Black Eagle 74, who sired Black Squirrel 53, who is famous as a sire of style and good qualities, throughout Kentucky and many other states.

SPORTING BOY's dam is by the renowned model and show stallion Endor 27, who had more premiums to his credit than any stallion in his day, and had for his sire King Denmark, and dam by Boliver [th.]. Sporting Boy's 2nd Dam was Warren Chief, he by Cabell's Lexington, who was one of the most noted sires and show stallions Kentucky ever had. Cabell's Lexington's dam was by Old Tom Hal, the founder of the pacing horse family in Kentucky and Tennessee. His second dam was by Old Copperbottom, who was one of the founders of saddle horses in Kentucky and Tennessee. SPORTING BOY not only possesses the blood lines, but has all the qualities in action and beauty. He is a saddle horse from a walk to all gaits, and in a trot he is a trotter and in a rack he is a wonder. He is absolutely sound and has proven a sure breeder.

SPORTING BOY will stand for $12.50 at the same place and under same conditions as Black Warrior John.

STRONG TEMPERANCE LECTURE BY H. K. TAYLOR.

Prof. H. K. Taylor, of Louisville, delivered a temperance lecture at Oelze's hall last Thursday night to about two hundred people.

A song was sung, then a prayer offered by the Rev. R. H. Roe of Irvington, followed by an introduction of Prof. Taylor by Attorney Edmund Wroe. This being Mr. Wroe's first appearance before an audience since his recent admission to the bar, he received great applause as he arose to introduce the speaker of the evening. Wroe has a good delivery. Every word he spoke had a true meaning to it.

Mr. Wroe said: "It affords me great pleasure to present to you this evening an ideal educator, ideal because he teaches the heart, the hand and the head. Ideal because he fights evil in all of its phases, in all of its places, from the precinct elect to the State Legislature. I present to you tonight the man who has done more towards securing the passage of the Cummack local option bill at Frankfort in the Legislature, than any man in the State." (Applause.)

"I appreciate Mr. Wroe's words," said Prof. Taylor, "I believe to work for local option is the highest calling of any man or woman. Every man should array himself on the side of temperance so that his position can not be possibly mistaken."

"There is today much encouragement in Kentucky for good. The morals of the State are on an upward trend. The Christian people are on top. I am free to say that I have not heretofore admired the Governor of Kentucky. No personal ill-will whatever, but I have not admired his political tactics. Whether by policy or intent or whether by the influence of a good wife or whatever the cause, the Governor of Kentucky has stood for the original Cummack local option bill from start to finish."

"The Christian people of Kentucky, outraged at the saloon simply made the demand of the machine that they must give the will of the majority or take the consequences of the next election. The local option people of the State got more from the last Legislature than they have from any other Legislature in years."

"Will Cloverport people be behind the example that is being set by the State at large? Will you let a few bootleggers ride rough-shod over the will of the people? Will the chivalry of this town go to shatters when the moral trend is elsewhere climbing upward?"

"The fight of the local option bill was not in the House of Representatives but it was in the Senate. The juggle was there. Representatives who had come fresh from the people knew their will and stood by the people. A few fellows found out that it was unpopular to be on the whiskey side and floundered—some pretended to be for temperance but were not. All the time they were praying that a vote should never be taken on the question. Soon all the fellows found out it was unpopular to be on the whiskey side and they scrambled all over themselves trying to get into the band wagon. Then the temperance people got more than they asked for. They got a bill that will absolutely kill the blind tiger—a bill that prohibits any carrier to bring whiskey into a local option community in more than one gallon lots. The law becomes effective June 15 and you people have absolute protection against blind tigers if you will enforce the law."

"Whenever you hear a man stand for the respectability of a saloon, tell him there is no respectability in a law-breaking business. 'The whiskey people have publicly declared that they must cultivate an appetite for whiskey in the younger generations that are coming on or their business in future years will be ruined. They would have their drummers to advise each run-seller to give young boys whiskey free in order to cultivate an appetite among them for whiskey, and later on they are sure these very young boys will pay them big dividends when they get within the

"I am against the saloon because it is an unqualified nuisance. I will not dwell on the crime of this business. There is no heart among you that has not been hurt by the hands of rum. I would as soon stand here and plead for any nuisance in this town or in any other town as to plead for a saloon. There are no rights for the saloon. It has none. But the majority of the people give it a right to exist for a year at a time. There is no man on earth who can mention one good thing about a saloon. It is destructive of peace, order and safety in every community where it exists. The saloon breeds vice and crime."

"The saloon does not live on drunkards alone. It lives by making drunkards of our boys. This business does not go single handed. Joined with it are all the vices and crimes in existence. 'Sometimes you are told of a nice man who is in the whiskey business. If you estimate the nicety of a man by his politeness, I grant you will find many nice saloon keepers. It is impossible for any sane man to engage in that traffic which will destroy his fellow-man. The man is in it for the money—the revenue."

"Whenever you hear a man stand for the respectability of a saloon, tell him there is no respectability in a law-breaking business."

"The whiskey people have publicly declared that they must cultivate an appetite for whiskey in the younger generations that are coming on or their business in future years will be ruined. They would have their drummers to advise each run-seller to give young boys whiskey free in order to cultivate an appetite among them for whiskey, and later on they are sure these very young boys will pay them big dividends when they get within the clutches of strong drink."

"The one thing worth while's struggle is to kill the whiskey traffic. The chief assets of a community are its boys and girls. This is above all. Then our purpose should be to save these boys and girls. 'The hue and cry comes up that local option destroys property value. I have evidence from a saloon keeper himself that will prove the absurdity of this claim. A saloon man told me that he built a $12,000 home in Louisville, a saloon was set up in the neighborhood; he sold the house for $8,000; built another for $10,000; a saloon was started near it; this one he sold for $5,000 and finally had to move into a section where the people had already voted whiskey out. He had sons and daughters and wanted to protect them."

"Have you ever known a saloon to enhance the value of a single piece of property. I would rather see the streets of any town grow up in blue grass than to see a town filled up with saloons."

"Have you ever seen a Town Board that has said 'out with the saloon' because it is a nuisance? No. But have you not seen the same Town Board say 'out with a pig pen' because it is a nuisance. I will take a pig pen over any corner rather than to have one saloon. Town Boards are awful quick to abate all nuisances except whiskey. Strange they never get to that."

"Again some people bring up the old song of 'killing the business of a town. Well then, I suppose Cloverport is dead because it has had local option for six years. Suppose there is no new house going up; no new business starting; everything dead, I reckon. Supposing Cloverport had saloons and a man in the country comes to town with $5. The man goes to the saloon spends $4.75 for whiskey and in gambling; spends 15 cents for tobacco and 10 cents for coffee to take home. This is the way a saloon helps the town's business."

"Suppose again, a man comes to town with $5. No saloons here. He spends all of the money for provisions for the family at home. Here is your trade benefit."

"Danville has not had saloons for thirty-five years. Her tax rate is 70 cents on the hundred dollars."

"Frankfort, the worst kept town in Kentucky, has fifty-three saloons; a tax rate of $1.50 on the hundred dollars on a poll tax to the limit."

"Mayfield has had no saloons for thirty years. A vote was taken recently and the local option people won by a 10 to 1 majority. The fellows that signed the petition for an election voted for local option."

"The highest court of the land has said the whiskey traffic has no rights. The man who prays the Lords' prayer and helps the saloon in existence is a hypocrite."

"What is a cold in the head? Nothing to worry about if you treat it with Ely's Cream Balm as soon as you begin to sneeze and snuffle. Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air-passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for ever by breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm cures catarrh promptly and certainly. But you know the old saw about the ounce of prevention. Therefore use Cream Balm when the cold is in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c., or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York."

"The Victoria Cross. The intrinsic value of the Victoria cross, the most highly prized decoration in army and navy, is about 14 pence. It was instituted by royal warrant on Jan. 29, 1856; as a reward of gallantry of all ranks, and the first presentation (of sixty-two crosses) was made by the late Queen Victoria in person on Friday, June 20, 1857. It is in the shape of a Maltese cross and is made to this day out of metal from Russian cannon captured at Sevastopol.—St. James' Gazette."

"Snow at a Halfpenny a Pound. Snow is sold in the north of Sicily, where it fetches about a halfpenny a pound. It is a government monopoly and the prince of Palermo derives the greater part of his income from it. The snow, which is gathered on the mountains in felt covered baskets, is widely bought in the cities for refrigerating purposes.—London Tit-Bits."

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.

Nobody at all informed on the subject believes that the Common School System of Kentucky is what it ought to be. A look at the miserable little cabins that serve as school houses in many, if not most of the school districts in the state, and peep inside at the more miserable children during school hours, on a winter day, would convince anyone that Kentucky is behind the times in the matter of Common schools, but yet they are Southern States behind Kentucky, and Southern States would be singularly wanting in patriotism and affection for his people who did not desire to have this condition improved. How best to bring about such results can only be ascertained through interchange of ideas and opinions among persons conversant with the situation and capable of helping the cause. This was suggested a Conference of the leading educators in the Southern states, for the purpose of evolving some plan to extend the educational system so as to benefit all the people.

Higher, choicer and college and normal institutions have been doing a great work, but they did not "reach the spot". What the people need is the free school and that of as high a standard as it is possible to make it, supported by general taxation. There is the rub; that question of taxation. The difficult thing is to induce the people to tax themselves for schools to the extent of having a ten months school year and teachers paid adequate salaries. In Kentucky, in the country districts, the rule is a six months school year for the teachers, poor teachers, poor scholars, poor schools—poor people. Any agency by which such a state of things could be remedied should receive a welcome from all good people. Such an agency is "The Conference for Education in the South" which meets annually in one of the Southern States to discuss and devise methods to improve them. Its meetings are attended by eminent citizens, not only from the South but from the North and East also, who are interested in the welfare of the South and her people. The next meeting of the Conference will be in Lexington, May 2-3-4, and all who desire to see better schools throughout the State are invited to attend.

Will Accept Refills.
Louisville, Ky., March 23rd, 1906.—Mr. J. E. Keith, Cloverport, Ky. Dear Sir:—We will accept with pleasure Grand Father's Clock, if it can be moved safely, also table and book "Joseph" ten Almanacs from 1840 to 1850, Louisville Newspapers 1840 to 1850, two old pictures, and two church books of Otter Creek and Glend Church for exhibition during "Home-Coming week" June 13-17. Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers, they filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from the blood, due to neglected kidneys.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, impure blood through veins and arteries.

It used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmor's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy is now realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.

You may have a sample bottle by mail. Name of Swamp Root, free, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmor & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake but remember the name Swamp Root. Dr. Kilmor's Swamp Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

Women in Our Hospitals

Appalling Increases in the Number of Operations Performed Each Year—How Women May Avoid Them.

Going through the hospitals in our large cities one is surprised to find such a large proportion of the patients lying on those snow-white beds women and girls, who are either awaiting or recovering from serious operations. Why should this be the case? Simply because they have neglected themselves. Female troubles are certainly on the increase among the women of this country—they creep upon them unawares, but every one of those patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at left or right of the abdomen, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, dizziness, flatulency, displacements of the organs or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female organs, and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation, but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from surgical operations.

"When women are troubled with irregular menstruation, painful periods, weakness, displacement or prolapse of the organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are unable to conceive, or have nervousness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" feelings, or feel that they are alone in the world, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

The following letters cannot fail to bring hope to despairing women.

Miss Ruby Mushrush, of East Chicago, Ind., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been a great sufferer with irregular periods and female trouble, and about three months ago the doctor, after using the X-Ray on me, said I had an abscess and would have to have an operation. My mother would not let me try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, but it not only saved me from an operation but made me entirely well."

Mrs. Alice Berryhill, of 313 Boyce Street, Chattanooga, Tenn., writes:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Three years ago life looked dark to me. I had ulceration and inflammation of the female organs and was in a serious condition. My health was completely broken down and I was told I would have to have an operation. I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. He tried to influence me against it but I sent for the medicine that same day and began to use it faithfully. Within five days I felt relief but was not entirely cured until I used it for some time.

"My medicine is certainly fine. I have induced several friends and neighbors to take it and I know more than a dozen who had female troubles who today are as well and strong as I am from using your Vegetable Compound."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, writes all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Clear Case of Rankin.
The manager of a New York theater told the following story: During a performance of "Rip Van Winkle" by the late Joseph Jefferson the manager, who was standing in the lobby, observed a countryman hovering about the entrance in an uncertain way. Finally, with a determination to go the limit, the countryman bought a ticket and entered the house. A little while after the manager happened to be in the lobby again, when the countryman came out with an expression of intense disgust upon his face.

"Well, how do you like the show?" the manager inquired, with secret amusement.

The man's former good confidential. "Say, mister," he replied, "I'm goin' to have a mighty hard time explainin' to Marandy what I done with them two dollars, but you kin bet I won't let her I paid it to see an old fellow fill up on klicker an' go to sleep when I could 'a' gone up ter her tavern at the Corners an' 'a' seen old Bill Hard-trees dew it for nothin'!"—Success Magazine.

Frightened the Bride to Death.
In the Church of Christian at Piesek, in Bohemia, a marriage was about to be solemnized between Anna Roslin, aged nineteen, and a youth of her choice. Bride and bridegroom stood all ready before the altar, where were lighted tapers. Before the priest could unite the bridal pair one of the tapers became suddenly extinguished. A loud shriek came from the bride, and she gasped, "Meine kjerze ist erloschen!" ("My taper is extinguished!") and sank unconscious into the arms of the bridegroom. The expectation of the village, several attempts were made to revive the poor girl, but in vain. The bride, in her chapel and veil, died at the altar rail. The superstition of the village of the plain is that if a lighted taper becomes extinguished on either side of the altar the person standing on that side of the altar where the light went out will suffer a dire calamity.—London News.

Calling People to Church.
When I was examining the church bells of the East Riding of Yorkshire some years ago I came to a little place called Fordon, on the wolds between Malton and Bridlington. It was a very primitive place, quite cut off from the world, the few inhabitants hardly knowing the road over the hilltop to the next place northward. The diminutive building which serves as a church is built near the brow of the hill. It has no tower, bell turret or bell cot. On inquiry I found that it had no bell. The journey came over on horseback now and then from a neighboring parish, tied up his horse outside the church, opened the door, got on his surplice and then walked to the top of the hill and cracked his whip several times, "and then we know as it's time to sing it spoth," said my informant on the spot.—London Notes and Queries.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE TABLETS. (Dose: 1 or 2 tablets 3 or 4 times a day.) W. D. F. W. G. V. E. S. (in each box, 20c).

From Mr. Singleton.
Editor News, Sir:—I like Judge Moorman's plan for good roads. He wants good roads for the people to go to church in the winter as well as in the summer. Judge Moorman loves the people of Breckenridge county and wants to help them. Every man ought to help to have good roads. As I have lived in Breckenridge county fourteen years I think I know something about the condition of the roads there.

Benjamin F. Singleton, Advville, Ky.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.
"I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain," says A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator of Buffalo, O. "I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure, then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick-dust-like substance and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1000 worth of good."

Foley's Kidney Cure will cure every form of kidney or bladder disease. A. R. Fisher.

Commonwealth vs. George Douglas, colored, of Owensboro charged with robbing Wilson's store was tried by a jury and acquitted after which he was taken to Cloverport by the Sheriff to answer the charge of having broken into the store of Frank Frazier and robbed it. It is believed that Douglas is a hardened criminal and is wanted in Nashville for murder.—Clarion.

Men Past Sixty in Danger.
More than half of mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually accompanied of prostrate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Henry Barnett, Brook Park, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years, although I am now 91 years old."—A. R. Fisher.

All Carleton was started about 4 p. m. last Sunday when the news was spread that Miss Ellen Dwyer aged 60, had burned to death at the home of her brother, Louis, in the suburbs of the city.—Telephone.

Figures On Farms

If you could sell your farm today for $100 an acre and buy it back tomorrow for $10 an acre, You would do it.

If you can buy the $100 land for $10 somewhere else, the proposition is just as good. You can buy it in the Southwest.

Why shouldn't you do it?

If you wish to know more about it, write for copies of our Texas and Oklahoma books. They are free.

Mr. Julian Brown has planted a number of fine shade trees in front of his store property on Main street which will add much to the appearance of the sight. Up the same street a square, Mrs. George Jordan has set out trees around her corner lot. In a few years the location will have plenty of shade and beauty at which will add much to the value of the property. It costs but very little to plant trees and it seems that every lot holder along the town's Main street, at least, should help to beautify the place by this means as well as to add to the comfort of the many tollers who are compelled to hike up and down this barren thoroughfare three times a day and more when Old Sol is doing his best to melt the earth.

How to Boil Water.

To boil water would seem to be a very simple thing, and yet the late Charles Delmonico used to say that few people knew how to do it. "The secret is," he said, "in putting good fresh water into a clean kettle already quite warm and setting the water to boiling quickly and then taking it right off for use in tea, coffee or other drinks before it is spoiled. To let it steam and simmer and evaporate until the good water is the atmosphere, and the line and iron and dregs only left in the kettle is what makes a great many people sick, and it is worse than no water at all." "The water boiled and then flavored with a few drops of lemon juice Mr. Delmonico used to charge as much as for his best liquor, and he often recommended it to his customers and friends who complained of loss of appetite. It is worth trying. —Good Living.

The Alternative.

The doctor had been called to see a pitman's wife. On coming down from her room the doctor said to the husband: "Well, Georgy, I'm glad to say there isn't very much wrong with your wife. It's a case of too much blood, and we'll try an old fashioned remedy. Just get a leech at the chemist's and put it on her, and I believe you'll find her better when I call in the morning." Next day the doctor called again and, meeting the husband, who was a bit of a sportsman, like many of his kind, said: "And how's your wife this morning, Georgy? Better, I expect." "Nal, nal, she's worse," replied Georgy. "Worse?" exclaimed the doctor. "But what do you as I told you last night?" "Well, not exactly, for I couldn't get a leech, so I put the ferret I bed wit'er." —London Tatler.

Valuable Desolate Islands.

The most valuable desolate islands in the world are the Lincovs, in the Arctic ocean, off the mouth of the Lena, in Siberia. They are far from and utterly barren save for arctic moss, but they contain such enormous quantities of fossil ivory that they are exceedingly valuable—in fact, although uninhabited save for the ivory diggers and of themselves incapable of supporting life, they produce a revenue of £100,000 a year.—London Queen.

A Bengalee Peculiarity.

A doctor remarks: "What strikes one most at a Bengal hospital is the lack of sense of proportion in the estimation of diseases. A man is gravely perturbed because he has not sneezed for three months, but he is comparatively indifferent to the fact that he exhibits the early signs of leprosy."

Rustic Polly.

"Tud's country, would you? His manner is perfect and his dress fashionable." "Yes, but he gave himself dead away on the street car today."

"How?"

"Got up and gave his seat to a woman."—Cleveland Leader.

Little Talks of Life.

It is while you are patiently telling at the little talks of life that the meaning and shape of the great whole of life dawns upon you. It is while you are resisting little temptations that you are growing stronger.—Phillips Brooks.

Her Attraction.

Jim—How did you fall in love with her? Is she pretty or is she rich? Jack—Both: she's pretty rich.—Pittsburg Gazette.

CATARRA.

The Kidney and Bladder Sufferer's Friend.

Signature of Dr. H. H. H. H.

Louisville in the three months ending April 18, made a record of 14 murders, 15 suicides and 38 deaths from accident.

The re-interment of the body of Paul Jones will take place at Ann Arbor April 23. Many distinguished naval officers will participate in the ceremonies.

HON. BEN JOHNSON.

of Bardonia, sole candidate for congress from the Fourth District, was in town from Sunday afternoon to Monday night. Mr. Johnson is a man of marked ability, and is always found taking his stand for the right. He is extremely liberal in matters of charity and is always ready to lend the helping hand to the needy. He appreciates his friends, whom he numbers by hundreds, and no sacrifice is so great but that he can readily make it for the asking. Mr. Johnson is the next Congressman from the Fourth, and we are justly proud of such a Representative.—Leitchfield Gazette.

conquest. The inhabitants of England and the lowlands of Scotland, therefore, sprang from an amalgamation of the original Celtic with German and Scandinavian blood. Wales and the highlands of Scotland are still inhabited by descendants of the ancient Celtic tribes. The people of Ireland also are of Celtic origin, although there is an admixture of many other races.

Is The Moon Inhabited.

Science has proven that the moon has an atmosphere, which makes life in some form possible on that satellite. But not for human beings, who have a hard enough time on this earth of ours; especially those who don't know that Electric Bitters cure Headaches, Biliousness, Malaria, Chills and Fever, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Torpid Liver, Kidney complaints, General Debility and Female weaknesses. GOV. FOLK ON THE SALOON

I have previously spoken to you of the pernicious effects of the state licensing the liquor traffic in any form. The so-called high license law should be amended so as to eliminate the licensing of the liquor traffic by the state. This law enacted in 1888 forbids under penalties the selling of liquor except at certain locations agreed upon by citizens of the town or residents of the block where it is permitted for a fee that goes to maintain the city, county and State. Until the passage of this act there was no effective law on the statute books to suppress the cross-roads grogeries that flourished like mushrooms throughout the state. For the good that has been done, many highly honorable citizens oppose the repeal of the law. Many who take this position are actuated by unselfish motives; while others no doubt, are selfishly interested in having the law retained. With a due regard for the opinion of others, I give my views as it is my duty to do, and leave you to act as your conscience may dictate and your judgment tell you is right.

In my opinion, as far as the law goes in the direction of eradicating the liquor business, it is good; but it does not go far enough. If the liquor business is an evil thing it should not be permitted at all. Certainly the law should not sanction such a business, and by licensing it makes the state a partner in iniquity. Stripped of all useless verbiage this act levies tribute on debauchery and crime; in this respect it is indefensible from any moral standpoint. If it be insisted that men will drink and sell liquor any way, and the state may as well profit by their appetite, and lost for gain, it could with equal force be argued that men will kill, and therefore the state should license murder in certain forms and in certain places so as to profit by this weakness of mankind.

If it be said that the licensing of the liquor traffic be justifiable when the proceeds of the license go to help maintain our worthy institutions, the answer should be: The state of Missouri is wealthy enough to support adequately its institutions without making them owe their existence to the licensing of a business that degrades the youth and pollutes the morals of men. If it be right to maintain our institutions in part by the licensing of the wrong, the same principle would justify the support of our institutions wholly and even the State government from the fruits of legalized crime. The government of Monte Carlo draws its sustenance from the licensing of the gambling table, but such an idea is abhorrent to every Missourian. If it would be wrong to support the State government by putting a price on evil, it is wrong to license the liquor traffic at all. This is not the demand of a healthy public sentiment that will not tolerate the State sharing in the profits of vicious practices.

OBSERVATIONS OF HERR PRITZEL

Ven it rains ste wet.
De first sign of spring is de Easter hat bill. Dots no joke.
Ven a man makes one dollar and pays two dollars for a spring hat, its no business. Ven will be old Sun comes come back in style again I wonder.

Ven we get good roads we will have better business. Dot feller Stader is all right. He just keep dot big stick tiring all time. I wonder if dat is one of dem big sticks dey use at de commercial club.

De vintin now get cracy at dis season of the year. I sleep down nit the cow and horse, vils my wife, she looks for peddles and other critters. Dues is de meloncy season of the year.

Ven we get electric lights vot will dom fellows, dot run de Gas Heesters for de living. Dot hat had a fine thing out of it. De stockholders hold de bag. De other fellows do de rest. It no wonder ven you talk about getting up a stock company to bore for oil dat every body takes de wood's. Vell I just don't blame em.

Vell dot Henri DeHaven Moorman was a phony fellow. Ever time he just write a letter he has it printed and sometimes I wonder if he has his letters printed for dot girl. Ven Henri was a candidate he rode one a letter every day and had it printed so it could be red. He is a good boy.

Dot Charles Nolte was a phony fellow already. He wanted me to join dat commercial club. He said we all meet and huf a good time and den we go after de people and take them home. I had a brother in Chermady dat vot his mit a club and was laid up for six months. I no join him.

I went into Bill Preston's and called for a cream ale. He said vite er red. I knowed Bill so I vinked one eye, and said, any color just to it red. Vell he sat out a bottle of pop. Vor would Emperor William said to see one red on his subjects insulted. Bill says de lid is down. Vor lid I sed: the one that fell Layman and Chon Balazage put on Vell, I just go to Tell City next Sunday.

Now de vintin its all up for local option. I just not what to do. Ven I go to one of dem meetings day say: Herr Pritzel just as welcome as de president of de whole world. Den pin vite withon on me and till me up vit red lemonade until I swell like a red balloon at a circus. Then the de come long mit the hand shaking and put me on de shouder and say: Yest are already sporting vite wines and you go through the pearly gate mit out a jar. My wife she slobbers all over my ears I vos redeemed of all my sins and she yost have your kraut for dinner. Vell den vintin is all vite but I just can't stand dat vit red lemonade. De poyrs say I vos a hypocrite and I just don't know vot to do.

Like a Romance Was This Match.

Irvington, Ky., April 6.—Something of a sensation was created this morning when the news spread abroad that a run-away couple were on the Irvington & Fordsville train and the father of the young lady had telegraphed the Mayor to apprehend them. This was promptly done and the young lady was taken to the McCoy House to await the coming of the alert father. Her bright face aroused the sympathy of the spectators and some of the boys who could not bear to see such bright hopes dashed to pieces, when so near the goal, planned to lend a helping hand. Croyton Claycomb gained the admission of the young lady and by permission of her hostess carried her boldly out in front of the Mayor, who thinking the vigilant eye of his officer, T. J. Adkinson, would not make escape possible. Lewis H. Jolly, having secured a buggy, drove across Rail Road Street to the Hotel, and the young lady, accompanied by Claycomb, met him there, and they drove out the public road towards Brandenburg, Ky. The young man, piloted by John Simmons, struck across the fields, and met the occupants of the buggy, here Jolly turned the young lady over to the happy young man, and they, accompanied by Lonnie Dowell, drove off for the goal of their ambitions, amid the heart cheers of the crowd who had gathered, and gave the officer the laugh.

The young couple met for the first time last evening, their courtship having been done through a correspondence agency. The young man's name is Bertram Martin, age 22, of Smauick Wis., and the young lady is Miss Letha Marshall, age 18, of Fordsville.

CONFERS HONOR UPON MR. HAYNES.

The following letter from the Louisville Commercial Club confers an honor upon one of Cloverport's most congenial business men, Mr. Eugene Haynes. On account of the absence of his partner, Mr. Geo. W. Short, Mr. Haynes was it will be impossible for him to accept compensation. Such an honor coming from the Governor of Kentucky is doubtless a source of gratification to Mr. Haynes.

Louisville, Ky. April 4, Mr. Eugene Haynes, Cloverport, Ky. Dear Sir:—Upon the request of the Executive Committee for Home Coming Week in Louisville, June 12 to 17, 1906, Geo. J. C. W. Beckham will appoint a commission to represent officially every county in the state at Louisville during the big June event. The Governor wishes you to represent your county and you will receive the commission if you will accept.

The commission carries with it no compensation; nevertheless, we believe you will appreciate the honor conferred.

You will have the power to appoint a hostess to serve with you and a vice-commissioner to assist you and the hostess in the hospitable role. The hostess may also name a maid of honor. All will participate as fully as their desire in the exercises and functions but none will be entertained at the expense of the Local Committees. Please let us have your decision by return mail.

Yours very truly,
R. E. Hughes,
Director General.
R. S. Brown,
Chief Executive.
Clarence Dillam,
Chairman of Count Commissioners Committee.

MOTHERS OF CLOVERPORT

Are Your Children Thin, Pasty and Ailing? If So Read This.

"Vind will make children strong, robust and toy and we will return your money."

Is there a mother in Cloverport who will ignore such generous offer as this? You risk not one cent. We pay for all the Vind your child takes if it does no good.

There are plenty of children all around us who are thin, pasty, ailing and tired all the time. Don't want to do this, and don't want to do that. Do not blame the children; they have no strength, no blood, no vitality; rapid growth takes all their strength.

Vind is just what our child needs. It is a delicious cod liver oil preparation, and the children love it. It creates strength, makes rich, red blood, and vitality as nothing else can do. And after a severe sickness there is nothing that will build your child up like Vind.

Mrs. E. M. Owsalt of Mansfield, Ohio, writes: "My little daughter became so poorly that I was obliged to take her from school. She was thin, no appetite, tired all the time and weak. We had tried several medicines without benefit. Since taking Vind, however, she is as well as ever she has gained flesh, has rosy cheeks, good appetite and is going to school every day."

"We want to say to every mother in Cloverport that Vind will build your little ones up into strong, robust, healthy children. We have never sold anything equal to it in our store for this purpose, and we will return your money if it fails." Short & Haynes, Druggists.

The Epworth League gave an open social in the Methodist church parlors last Friday evening.

Raymond Pate has returned from Louisville.

DO IT

The News, one year, and FARM JOURNAL, five years,
for a DOLLAR BILL! BARGAIN!

THE "TWINs."

That's what Mr. R. M. Crenshaw calls them. Farm Journal is the best farm paper published. The News is the paper in Breckenridge county. Gives more news, more of everything than any other. Both are the best—therefore, twins. And just a dollar, too. Send in your name and the dollar!

NOW!

A man came over from Big Spring to Garfield and bought a yoke of oxen because he read this little want ad.

FOR SALE—Two yoke of oxen, 6 and 7 years old; nice red smooth shins and well broke. In good working shape. D. H. Smith, Garfield, Ky.

The ad cost 28 cents. It sold the oxen and other stock, amounting in all to over a cool hundred dollars!

This is the power of a News want ad in a nut-shell.

Golden Anniversary.

The News is in receipt of the announcement of the fiftieth anniversary of Capt. and Mrs. R. T. Williams, marriage. The News extends congratulations and wishes them happiness and prosperity through the days of their life to come.

Increase Telephone Rates.

The Cumberland Telephone company being now without option for long distance communication from Morganfield has increased the charge for messages to Henderson from ten cents to twenty-five cents, and to other points corresponding advance has been made.

Record Tobacco Load.

August Hagman, of the Indian creek precinct in Hancock county, was in the city today with one of the largest loads of tobacco of the season, having on one wagon 3,540 pounds. He came on the packet from Marshall's Landing. Mr. Hagman says he and his neighbors will vote strictly to the Equity acreage limitation and that the recent satisfactory distribution of money to those who pooled in 1904 at Owensboro has greatly increased the Equity enthusiasm. Mr. Hagman is one of Hancock's most enterprising farmers.—Owensboro Courier.

Edward Harris is at home from Louisville Sunday.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the blood is in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable sugar coated.
